

(Continued from page three)

Mrs. W. A. Smith recently gave a party to several young ladies in honor of the 15th birthday of her granddaughter, Miss Rebecca Smith. Supper was served and the young lady received many gifts from her friends. The party was given at the home of Montpelier were week-end visitors at C. E. Butts.—Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Burt and guests, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Reynolds of Minneapolis, visited the White Mountain Saturday and Sunday.—Miss Ruth Smith, who left Saturday for New York City, where she has position as a teacher in the Wright Oral School. Her father, C. L. McMahon, accompanied her to Burlington. Mr. McMahon went Sunday night to Boston to attend a bankers' convention.—The meeting of the Bridge Street Congregational Church, with Mrs. E. G. Stafford in the past position until the afternoon of October 18.—Mrs. C. H. Gregg of West Charleston is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Moulton.—Miss Irene Asquith has returned from the Holyoke and South Hadley, Mass. Miss Asquith was accompanied home by J. J. Moriarty of South Hadley.—Carl DeLeon and Miss Winifred Davis, who motored here Saturday from Rocky Hill, Conn., were accompanied by Rocky Hill friends. Mrs. Davis' mother, Mrs. Elmer E. Davis, who has passed two weeks with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Collins.—The girls of the senior high school have organized an out-of-door club, which is known as the "Blue Birds." The club is headed by J. Keefe was elected president of the club, Dorothy Barrows vice-president, Dorothy Shepard secretary and Martha Gale treasurer. The charter members are as follows: The Misses Margaret Keefe, Dorothy Barrows, Dorothy Shepard, Mary Bailey, Catherine Harris, Floy Collins, Mabel Sleeper, Beatrice Pike, Hazel Ames, Gertrude Clark, Martha Gale, Arlie Wright, Agnes Towne, Hortense Shackett, Mary Chapin, Marjorie Foster, and Dorothy Barrows. The club is headed by Kasher and Florence Shackett. The purpose of the club is for out-of-door exercise during the school year.

MORRISVILLE

The second annual meeting of the Second District of the Vermont Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in the Congregational Church, Wednesday, October 13. The meeting is under the leadership of Mrs. Robert W. French of St. Johnsbury, second vice president of the Vermont Federation. Mrs. Slack, of Springfield, the Federation President, will be present and it is hoped that other state officers can attend.

The meeting will be held in all the federated clubs in northern Vermont from St. Johnsbury to Burlington, including Waterbury. There are twenty-eight clubs in all and each club is entitled to representation by its President, delegates and as many members as possible.

Dinner will be served in the vestry of the church at noon to all out-of-town guests and to any of the local club members who care to avail themselves of it.

The main address of the day will be delivered by the Hon. F. G. Fleetwood, of Morrisville, and will be along the line of the effect of suffrage on club life.

These district meetings were instituted by the Vermont Federation, and among the individual clubs a better chance than the Federation meeting affords, to come in close touch with each other for the discussion of problems and exchange of ideas.—Mr. and Mrs. George Larnaway and daughter, of Barre, Mass., and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Blakeley of Waterbury.—Miss Mary J. Simpson and daughter, of Barre, Mass., who has been with friends in town.—Miss Hazel Sherman resumed her duties Monday as book-keeper in the local telephone office, after a two weeks vacation.—Mrs. Warren Mears of Littleton, N. H., is a guest of Mrs. C. W. Collins in town.—Miss Bates is convalescent after being detained at home by illness, the past week.—George Durette is in Barre last week, called by the illness and death of his mother.—Miss Beatrice Morrill is employed during the absence of Miss Blanche Larnaway, who is taking a three weeks' vacation.—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Morse and Mrs. George G. Morse have gone to Boston for a week's stay.—Mrs. Helen Cram is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cram and daughter, Miss Beryl, and sons, Kyle and Keith, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Barrows were Sunday visitors at

[illegible]

St. Johnsbury assisted by Dr. A. D. Fris-tall writing the patient is doing well.
—The Rev. and Mrs. Charles Richardson of Greenfield, Mass., are guests at G. H.
Richardson's—L. Valley left Monday for Montreal, P. Q. for a visit with parents. Duane, G. H. and G. H. Cleveland are conducting the store.

WATERVILLE

The Rev. Amy E. Rogers preached in Woodbury Sunday, returning home Monday.—The Cemetery association was entertained at a social by Mrs. Edward Carpenter at the home of Mrs. Abell—The Ladies' Aid society met at the hall with Mrs. Addie Tobin Wednesday afternoon.—Mrs. Edna Bennett visited in Jeffersonville Sunday.—The Woman's Missionary society met with Mrs.
L. L. Carpenter Wednesday afternoon.— L. L. Carpenter attended a bank meeting at Johnson Tuesday.—The Woman's Foreign Missionary society will hold a public meeting Sunday evening at the church.
The program will be up-to-date.—Pearl Robbin has opened an expanded meat market on Church street.

CAMBRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rusterholz of Iowa came Tuesday night for a visit with relatives in town.—Mrs. E. T. Browster has returned from a visit to her sister Edward and wife and Mrs. Edward Guliver in Richmond.—The teachers of the school here went Wednesday to Burlington to attend the teachers' convention.— The moving into the Gates apartment house by Mrs. J. C. Jackson and Misses Anna and Barbara Luce of Waterbury were over here Saturday.— Thomas Corse celebrated his 83rd birthday Thursday. His sister, Mrs. Safford of Burlington and his daughter, Mrs. Mary Safford of Burlington, and his son, Mr.
Leon Ellsworth of Rutland spent Sunday and Monday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merrett Ellsworth.—Irving Waterson has moved to the hospital farm near Leola Roberts—A. R. Day of Burlington Friday.—Miss Winona McGuire of Burlington is a guest of Miss Leah Lohr.—Ferdinand Burnish has sold his farm in Westchester and has rented the Frank Thomas farm in North Cambridge.—Foyman and Selle Bros. of Berlin are spending a few days at their home here.

Orange County

RANDOLPH

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Bundy of Bethel were in town Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs.
D. Jones and daughter, Freda, of Morrisville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs.
E. D. Miles. Kate Parmenter has been attending a New England tuberculosis conference in Manchester, N. H.—Mrs.
V. B. Viall and Mrs. Clara Harrison have arrived in Burlington to visit Mrs. S. M.
Fawks, who has improved at the Lake view sanitarium.—Mr. and Mrs. H.
Blanchard have moved from the house of Dr. E. O. Blanchard to the office of Dr.
Blanchard to remain for the winter.—Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Slayton of Milford, N. H., proprietors of a summer hotel at Milford, N. H., have been in town.—
—Miss Dorothy Allen was Wednesday afternoon shower at her home Wednesday Sept. 29, when she received many gifts from her friends. The party was given in anticipation of her approaching marriage to Dr. J. C. Jackson, who has moved from the E. L. Martin house on Central street to the Burridge block.—Albert S.
Jouquette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J.
Jouquette, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. H. F. Powers, grandfather of Mrs. Henry Bagley last week Tuesday evening. The Rev. Fraser Metzger was the officiating clergyman, and the couple left the next morning for a short wedding trip.

Large crowds greeted Dr. Johnson at his Sunday service, and the singing of Mr. Natiger was also enjoyed. It was matter of regret that they were summoned back to Boston as soon and it is oped that at a later date they may return.—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tewksbury, of Morrisville, who have moved to the house which they have rented for the winter, have returned to their home on the Highland.—Mrs. Russell, the pianist at The Grand, was in Barre over Sunday with friends, returning to resume her work.— Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Chedel went to White Hall Monday to look over a house which they have rented for the winter. Mrs. Chedel will return and in a few days the family will close the house here and go there for the winter.
Miss Gaylord, who has been with them for a long time, will accompany them for the winter.—Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Powers, of Suffield, Conn., after a week here with another daughter and sister, Mrs. Roy Wheelock, left for their home Monday.—Miss Nellie Lease of Auburn-Mass., H. F. Powers, left for their home Monday.—Mrs. Robert Smith of Vermont, Mass., who has been with her son, Earl Smith, and wife for a few days, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Y. Morse of Bethel, and daughter, Mrs. Stuart of Hartford, Conn., stayed in town Tuesday.—Mrs. A. U.
Stephen after a few days stay in Windsor or with her husband, arrived home Tuesday.—Moll Holman, who has been in town for several days, the guest of his mother, Mrs. Moll Holman, left for home Tuesday.—Mrs. Alex England of Northfield after visiting her brother, W. A. McIntosh, and other relatives left for her home Tuesday.
—Mrs. Moll Holman left Monday for her home in Omaha, Neb.—G. O. Noyes, who was in Bethel Monday on a business trip.—Mr. and Mrs. Northrop are among the persons, who will close their house here for the winter, and go south. They have not yet found out what house they will close the winter.—L. E. Brigham, who has been housed with an attack of the trip, was able to be about the streets Tuesday and seems to be gaining each day.—A party from the local Odd Fellows club, who were in town Tuesday night to attend a meeting of that body there, the local Rebekah lodge will soon give a dance in their hall, announcement of which will be given later.—The Rev. W.
B. Smithers has been quite ill for several days, and is now recovering from the disease. This takes the form of a cold, and is not a serious condition.

RANDOLPH CENTER

Miss Connie Allen has closed her work at the State school here and returned to Boston to take a course in dental nursing.—William Jackson took seven head of fine Jersey cows from the State school herd to the State fair and took two first prizes, two seconds and a third and fourth prize in the cattle class.—The State school teachers of the graded school are attending the teachers' convention at Burlington.—Mrs.
L. F. Parish attended the district meeting of O. E. S. in Northfield Thursday, also the annual conference of the O. E. S. at C. I. Boyden.—An effort is being made here this winter and it is hoped it will be very successful.

Orleans County

NEWPORT

E. H. Hallott, of the Caledonia County Farmers Exchange, of St. Johnsbury, was a business visitor in town on Saturday.—The Ladies' Missionary and Industrial Club of the First Baptist Church held their annual meeting of the season on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Jackson.

B. W. Wilcox, Mrs. J. Berry, the candidate, presiding. The topic for the afternoon was "Spiritual Experiences of a Summer". A goodly number were present.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw have been elected to officiate at the Springfield exposition.—John Briggs was in Sherbrooke Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Leavitt and Mrs. Attie Lawrence have returned from Boston.—Lawrence has been elected to officiate at the exposition, of Montreal, were business visitors in town Saturday.—Mr. and Mrs. John Shover, of Richmond, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers.—Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Collins, of St. Johnsburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Mason.—Samuel Baker of Worcester, is visiting his mother, Mrs. P. A. Baker.—Laird Kennison was in Sherbrooke Saturday to pitch for the Sherbrooke baseball team.—Mr. and Mrs. John Webb, of Rock Island, were in town Saturday.—Miss Mabel Hayes and her three children, who are attending school at the Sacred Heart Convent.—Sam Wheel—who has been ill with typhoid fever, unable to be out.—Mrs. Emily Wertebree, of Montpelier, is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Johnson.—Mrs. Mary Haynes, of St. Albans, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gregory.—Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Sherman, Mrs. F. M. Sherman, Mrs. Charles Anderson and Miss Alice Bean motored to Johnsbury Saturday.—Miss Georgia Woodbury was the guest of her friends here Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Childs and Mrs. E. S. Hart were in St. Johnsbury Sunday to bring home Mrs. Grout, who has been receiving treatment at Brightlight hospital.—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pickford, Mr. Leonard, and Mrs. M. M. Leonard, and Mrs. Robert Pierce.—Dr. J. S. Melville visited his brother in Vershire.—F. B. Russell, manager of the Orleans Motor Co., of St. Albans, is in town.—Harold Bennett is selling his household goods and moving to Portland, where he has a position.—Mr. John D. Moore, of St. Albans, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Vanvaughn.—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Moore left Thursday by automobile for a trip through the White Mountains and will return to St. Johnsbury Friday morning, who has been ill with typhoid fever, improving rapidly.—Miss Lillian Leavitt was in St. Johnsbury Thursday.—Fred E. Gaudreau has recovered from an attack grip.—Mrs. Isaac Stearns, who has been visiting her nephew, H. C. F. Hoag, returned to her home in Vershire.—Mrs. Hannah G. Wall, of Corinth, N. H., will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. B. F. Moore.—Miss Flora Bailey, of Pine Hill, is ill with nervous trouble.—Mrs. E. M. Clark, living on the corner of Main and Elm streets, where she had a horse knocked down and badly injured Monday forenoon. A horse owned by Dwight Mulcaire of Derby Center, took fright on Coventry street and ran away. He freed himself from the wagon and dashed into the street, where he was seen running about without clothes. She knocked him down and badly bruised, but no bones broken. The wagon was badly damaged and the horse was uninjured.—Louis Metcreek died suddenly Sunday evening after returning from a visit to his father on similar attacks, but St. Sunday morning he was in the best of health. Late that afternoon he called to his brother near the doorway of his room that he was in great distress and he died before the doctor could arrive. His funeral services were held Tuesday morning at St. Mary's Catholic Church, the Rev. H. Bastin officiating. Interment was at the Catholic cemetery on Coventry street.

NORTH TROY

An unusually large amount of damage being done by vicious dogs attacking sheep. They have lately destroyed 25 or more. Lonna, besides quite a number at other times for him and George E. Boitard. Night watching has been done on and off during the last few weeks. He returned to her home in Brooklyn, N. Y., Saturday night after a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. D. Kelley. She is employed in the offices of the Equitable Trust Co., in New York, and its building was shaken by the explosion of the Times building Saturday night from Sutton, Que., in somewhat feeble condition. A few weeks ago he went to St. Thomas, Ont., intending to remain during the winter with his daughter, Miss Fay, who has a residence at the head of Main street in St. Johnsbury.—Harry Gilbert, now of Cambridge, Mass., was in town Sunday.—J. Blair and family returned from a 10 days' pleasure trip by automobile to Boston and other places.

GREENSBORO

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Chaffee spent the week-end with friends in Littleton, N. H. They arrived Saturday morning and returned in Burlington.—Harry Jaynes returned to his home in Fairfax last week after having completed his engagement at the Northampton store.—Charles Babbitt surprised his sister, Mrs. George Wright, at her home in Fairfax last week. Mrs. Babbitt is a veteran of the Civil War and has lived for many years in Pennsylvania. This week Mr. Babbitt and Mrs. Wright will visit their old home in Worthington, Ohio. Mr. Jaynes has been engaged as principal of the junior-senior high school and commenced his labors last Thursday.—Mrs. Kate Cook is visiting her sister, Mrs. Margaret Goss. —Albert Young has sold his farm, stock and fixtures for $10,000 and gives possession November 1.—Rudy was a business visitor in Bethel last Thursday and Friday.—William Thompson and wife were over from Vermont for a few hours Saturday.—The school for five weeks.

Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrel Mercier were invited to the home of their daughter, Mrs. Octave Bernars, where they celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. In the course of the evening, Mr. Mercier in a well worded speech presented Mr. and Mrs. Bernars with a pure containing $100 in gold. Several other useful bunches of pink and white carnations, a fine wedding cake made by Mrs. Anderson, a niece, was cut and served to Mrs. Mercier. Among those from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bernars, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bernars, Mr. and Mrs. Amelia Hartson and Frank Minney of Barre; Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson of Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. Duane and family, the Misses Eva and Edith Bernars of Benning; Mrs. Emma Bernars and son and Dr. Edward Massey and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Cyrel Mercier were married on the third day of October, 1870 and to this happy union have born three sons and four daughters. All are living except one child, who died in infancy. The couple have been married for 39 years and have been together. There were 15 grandchildren present. Monday morning at high mass at St. Michael's church, Mr. and Mrs. Mercier renewed their vows, a priest and Henry Fowler, Grace Demara, a bridesmaid. After the ceremony, the wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Demara.

LOWELL

Harry Haquard of Somerville, Mass., came Saturday to remain through the winter with his family at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gelo.—The Misses Erma and Elizabeth Curtis came Saturday to remain through the winter and Sunday home.—Mrs. Albert Melchior Brown of Eden to the Mary Fletcher Hospital Monday.—John Voyer has

CRAFTSBURY

The union service of the W. F. M. society representing the three different churches was held at the Methodist Episcopal Church Friday evening. A dinner was served at noon and a very interesting program was carried out the evening showing the importance of their missionary work.—E. W. Hardy returned from his week-end visit to Bliford of Lisbon N. H. prime minister Monday—Mrs. Hardy will move last week to Canada, where he has purchased a large farm.—W. C. Hadley was chosen delegate to the State convention Sunday morning from the Congregational Sunday school.—Louis Leland and Sunday school.—William Thayer and Mrs. Charles Thayer moved last week to Waterbury, where they intend to spend the winter. A large load of persons were in town Wednesday afternoon and the Masonic banquet. Former residents were three. Among residents are Leonard, Red Rand and George Anderson.—Fred Bailey came from Boston, Mass., he formerly resided there and returned Tuesday.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benson of Plymouth, N. Y., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Leavitt.—Mrs. Jennie Randall entered the St. Johnsbury hospital treatment.—Flora Waterhouse went to New York City Tuesday. She expects to spend the winter Sunday October 10 to be observed as rally day at the Methodist Episcopal church.

NORTH CRAFTSBURY

The lecture course committee for this year has made courses with the following subjects: October 7, Dr. Jewell Dwight Phillips, D. D.; November 18, Swiss Vagabonds; December 17, J. Dunton Sherman. M. H. Griswold of East Craftsbury has been elected secretary and treasurer. The first lecture will be held at the Presbyterian church, East Craftsbury, Saturday night, Oct. 9.—The Rev. E. S. C. Root is in Northampton, Mass., settling relatives.—The following went to State Fair at White River Junction: A. Dutton, C. H. Root, R. T. Anderson and Anna, of Burlington. Miss A. M. Alfred Rowley of Hartford, Conn., visited his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Rowley last week.—M. N. Peterson is making quite extensive repairs on his house.—Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Anderson of New Bedford, Mass., have been here a few days.—Arlene Chase is leaving his family to Littleton, N. H. He has sold out the Hardwick stage to Fletcher of Albany.—Earl W. Peterson of New Bedford, Mass., visited his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Peter F. B. Eaton's office Tuesday doing clerical work.—The Woman's Missionary Society met at the Congregational church Tuesday evening. The searchlight club had its first meeting of the season at Congregational parsonage Monday evening.—There will be a union meeting of the Young People's societies at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening, October 14.—Miss Martha Anderson and Miss Clemma Seaver are ending the State Convention of Teachers in Burlington this week.—A special meeting of the Girl Reserves was held Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. Lunch was served.

WESTFIELD

Miss Eva Gilpin of Barton came Thursday last to the home of her father, Harry Gilpin, till the middle of this week. Sunday Harry Bullis and Victor Monson were present. They were accompanied by their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Willis, Ralph Willis, Miss Elsie Besaw and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Longley.—Miss Clara Gladstone Savaria of North Troy is teaching at the local academy. Her mother, Mrs. J. B. I. is stopping at the Orleans hotel.—The first of the League of Nations is being held at Littleton, N. H. He has sold out the Hardwick stage to Fletcher of Albany.—Earl W. Peterson of New Bedford, Mass., visited his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Peter F. B. Eaton's office Tuesday doing clerical work.—The Woman's Missionary Society met at the Congregational church Tuesday evening. The searchlight club had its first meeting of the season at Congregational parsonage Monday evening.—There will be a union meeting of the Young People's societies at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening, October 14.—Miss Martha Anderson and Miss Clemma Seaver are ending the State Convention of Teachers in Burlington this week.—A special meeting of the Girl Reserves was held Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. Lunch was served.

WESTFIELD

Miss Eva Gilpin of Barton came Thursday last to the home of her father, Harry Gilpin, till the middle of this week. Sunday Harry Bullis and Victor Monson were present. They were accompanied by their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Willis, Ralph Willis, Miss Elsie Besaw and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Longley.—Miss Clara Gladstone Savaria of North Troy is teaching at the local academy. Her mother, Mrs. J. B. I. is stopping at the Orleans hotel.—The first of the League of Nations is being held at Littleton, N. H. He has sold out the Hardwick stage to Fletcher of Albany.—Earl W. Peterson of New Bedford, Mass., visited his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Peter F. B. Eaton's office Tuesday doing clerical work.—The Woman's Missionary Society met at the Congregational church Tuesday evening. The searchlight club had its first meeting of the season at Congregational parsonage Monday evening.—There will be a union meeting of the Young People's societies at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening, October 14.—Miss Martha Anderson and Miss Clemma Seaver are ending the State Convention of Teachers in Burlington this week.—A special meeting of the Girl Reserves was held Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. Lunch was served.

RUTLAND COUNTY

BRANDON

The Brandon High School football team was defeated by the Vergennes High school team at Vergennes Tuesday evening. Being 12 to 6.—Herbert Krieger, of Vergennes, who was injured in a fall, is getting better. His mother, Mrs. H. E. Blissel has returned from Gray Stone Lodge at Antrim, N. H. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Partlow and Kenneth, went Saturday night to Massachusetts, N. Y., where they will make a tour of the first section of the road on the Monday club was held Monday evening with Mrs. James H. Whelden.

and Mrs. E. O. Cool spent Saturday in Rutland.—John Dimmick, husband of Mrs. E. O. Cool, returned from Grove street to the Bashford street residence, where he resides, on Maple street, which he recently purchased.—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Butterfield returned Saturday evening from Boston where they have been for a week.—Mrs. L. A. Severy returned Friday morning from Boston, where they have been spending ten days.—The receipts for the rummage sale which was held Saturday afternoon in Grand Army hall by the ladies of the St. Thomas' Episcopal Church were $125.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Minors returned Saturday evening for Pittsburg, Pa. to visit Mr. Miner's brother, Donald. Before returning home, they will visit in Harrisburg, New York and Philadelphia.

A. Durgay has a flock of 11 hens that he laid 2,381 eggs in the last one year, showing is the egg score by the United States, 115; November, 221; December, January, 190; February, 193; March, April, 205; May, 230; June, 222; July, August, 191; September, 183; and to October, 194. In 1907, he had 1,675 eggs.

Broth Chamberlain of the Arysthynian's association office is enjoying his vacation at the home of her uncle, Edward Falls, N. Y.—Charles L. Elkins, U. S. S. Dixie, who has been visiting in Rutland, is here, having returned to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, by Mrs. Elkins, who will spend winter with him.—During the last hour at the meeting of Nesheon's Saturday evening, Edward Severy was given a surprise, the occasion being his birthday. He went with a purse of money from members of the Grange.—The annual Kempton supper given by the ladies of the Baptist Church was held in the Tech parlors Tuesday evening, commencing at six o'clock.—Mrs. Mark Rowley has been confined to the house several weeks with bronchitis.—Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Moore of Brooklyn, N. Y., are spending a few days here, packing up their household goods, before leaving for their mother, Mrs. J. H. Denison, of old Mayo of West Rutland is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mayo.—Miss Mary Daley, who has been confined to the house for some time by illness, does not improve and is not expected that she will recover. The graded and Junior and senior high schools closed Tuesday for the rest of the week to enable the teachers to attend the State teachers' convention, which is held in Burlington.—Mrs. Susan Shaw has returned from Albany, N. Y., where she spent her vacation.—Mrs. A. H. Miles was given a pleasant surprise Sunday by about 20 of her relatives and friends, the occasion being her birthday.—A lady attending a social gathering received a pearl necklace, a purse of money and a dress package. Refreshments were served.—As a Postmaster Edward C. Powers is enjoying a week's vacation from his duties at the local post office, Mr. Terrence Petter has gone to Boston to visit relatives.—The Monday club Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. Whelden.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lovett of Fairbury, Mass., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith, of Grove street.—At the whist party given by the Marble Chapter O. E. Tuesday evening the prizes were won by Miss Susan Talbot and Miss Sarah Adams and M. L. Force and F. E. Kingsley.—Miss Susan Talbot returned home from a returned from an automobile trip to Pittsfield, Mass.—Mrs. H. E. Hemenway, who has been visiting friends here, returned Wednesday to her home in Danville, N. Y.—The receipts of the Baptist church given by the ladies of the chapter club Tuesday evening were about $55.—J. Harry Cole returned today from Randolph. Mrs. Cole will remain there for a visit with relatives.—The death of Wilber Pace of Parkville, Mo., which occurred at Buffalo, N. Y., where he and Mrs. W. C. Smith went Tuesday.—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith went Wednesday to Hardwick to spend a week with relatives.—On account of the teachers' convention which is being held in Burlington this week, that next Tuesday is a legal holiday, being Columbus day, there will be no school in any of the grades or high school until Wednesday morning, but school will be in session next Saturday and make up for the time lost Monday.

BENSON

Mr. J. P. Newton returned from Rousesburg and St. Albans on Tuesday after an absence of over two weeks, visiting his parents in Sanford and Mrs. Harvey Taylor in Benson.—Ralph Barber of Bellows Falls is here the past week visiting his mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barber.—Charles Hayes of Fair Haven was here Tuesday night and was present in the morning at the communication of Acadia Lodge, No. 91, F. & A. M.—Mrs. William Thomas of Fair Haven with her three children, who have been visiting in Benson, returned to their home in Fair Haven.—Linus Barber, son of J. C. Barber, commenced work at the Mountain View stock farm Monday.—The ladies of the Congregational Church held their annual church fair at the chapel Friday afternoon, the large sum of $100 was netted.—Mrs. Lizzie Young of Hampton, N. Y., spent Sunday at H. Lavery's. She is here on account of the serious illness of her mother.—Miss Henrietta Belden of Hyde's Manor, Sudbury, was at home Tuesday.—Nora Fox, who has been running the boarding house at W. R. Barber's since May 1, is moving out of town and a new man will soon come in.—Martha Graves, 73 years old, died at William Peckey's September 24, after an illness of a few weeks. She was born in England and spent most of her life in Benson, where she was highly esteemed for her many qualities of mind and heart. Mrs. Graves' funeral was held Saturday from the late home and burial was in the cemetery.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith of Albany are guests at Hotel Wells.—Mrs. Manuel Wells returned from New Bedford and Castleton Friday.

FORESTDALE

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Partridge returned Sunday from Indianapolis, Ind., where they attended the national encampment of the A. R. T. They also visited relatives in Chicago, Ill., and Benton Harbor, Mich.—Mrs. Clarence Fisher and Mrs. Mary Whittaker, who have been visiting at Mary Whittaker's, have returned to Greenfield, Mass.—Robert Gould has returned from Hartford, Conn., where he has been several months.—Mr. and Mrs. James Madden and children of Burlington spent Sunday at Philip Bulfinch's in Burlington and returned to their relatives in Worcester, Mass.—Mark Bertram and Carl Ance have gone to Greenfield, Mass., where they have employment.—Marcus Correll and Miss Verna Correll of Forestdale and Earl Laroock and wife of Rock Creek returned Sunday at St. Mary's Church, Brandon, last Saturday morning by the Rev. Fr. Cray. Mrs. James Fitzpatrick and daughter returned from Burlington.—Oscar Carrier was in Concord, N. H., Wednesday attending the funeral of a relative.—Mrs. J. Toole of Burlington spent the week at Edward Sullivan's.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDonald and son are visiting relatives in Hinsdale, N. H.—Walter Smith has returned from Antrim, N. H., where he has passed several weeks.—J. E. Nicklan and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin French and son passed the weekend in Montpelier.